

@7, LOVELY FOR LUNCH

April 1, 2011

The Scheldestraat is a fun street to go to - you'll find the Miffy Store there and a few other nice children's shops. It is also fairly close to the Amstel Park, where there's a big playground and cute little city farm. A good place for an informal lunch or coffee is at @7. In the back is a little play area for the kids, there are plenty of high chairs, and on the menu are great treats for kids like warm cheese toasts and bread with chocolate sprinkles. One of my favourite places to have coffee or lunch with a friend with the kids in tow!
