

AMSTELPARK

April 1, 2011

We love taking the kids over to the Amstelpark for a walk and a play in the big playground. It's also a great spot for a summery picnic - in the quiet areas close to the river we've often seen rabbits hopping around our picnic blanket! Amstelpark also has a sweet little city farm and a 'train' that will drive you around the park and which the kids obviously love. There are a few places where you can have a drink and a snack but I prefer taking the kids to @7 on the Scheldestraat for lunch or a coffee (or for an ice cream next door in summer).
