

VIKINGS AND THINGS FROM SANDRA MONAT

APRIL 11, 2010

LOVE these melamine plates from Sandra Monat! Never knew that Vikings could actually be CUTE!

Sandra Monat lives in Germany and is a full time artist. She uses fabric, paper and thread for her collage-like creations. Her adorable, pillow-like puppets are one-of-a-kind, but she also produces some of her designs in small editions, like the plates, some correspondence cards and prints. All of them are equally adorable and equally tempting to get your hands on them before they're sold out...

Cool Dutch online store Zilu has a good collection of Sandra Monat products in stock - including the tents print (that I love).
