BU! PLAY BLANKET

JANUARY 25, 2012

My kids recently got a Little Red Stuga play blanket and it's just awesome. What a cool design!! The idea is so simple, but as always with the simplest ideas there is a very talented mind behind it. In this case Little Red Stuga worked together with the lovely Elisabeth Dunker from the beautiful blog and boutique Fine Little Day, who designed the indian graphics. I love how the Bu! blanket doubles up as a comfort blanket and a pretend play dress-up device - and how it travels everywhere. So cool!
