

CACHETTE - WONDERFUL FINDS!!

JUNE 4, 2012

Cachette is a new Anglo-French lifestyle concept store that has recently launched, and it is selling a gorgeous selection of homewares and children's products. I love the artisan quality of it all, the simplicity which has a directness and honesty to it that reminds me of other times, without it being antique or scruffy at all - it's a super fresh collection! All the finds are totally up my alley, and I'm pretty sure will be up yours as well...
