

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW...

OCTOBER 10, 2012

The bed for baby is ready! Set up in our bedroom, waiting, waiting... The one very special thing about this little bed is the sheet that was embroidered by my late grandmother in the 1940s of last century, for the birth of my mother (her oldest daughter). It's 70 years old! I love that little sheet.

I also like Pablo, the Oeuf pigeon on the nightstand, guarding the crib. Now that everything is ready, I'm starting to wonder - when is this little baby going to announce himself?
