MICHIKO AND ME

NOVEMBER 8, 2012

The kimono-inspired wrap designs by Michiko and Me are so clever! Made from gorgeous (and ultra British) Liberty fabrics, and using the old traditions known in Japanese clothing, the wrap tops and dresses in the Michiko and Me collection are easy to wear, lovely to look at, and very practical: they are designed to grow with the child, and to be worn across seasons. I love the different take on children's clothing that Nicky, the owner, has taken. Fresh, fun, stylish, and practical!

PS Fun fact: Nicky gave birth to a little girl called Alexa the same day I gave birth to Casper.
