

RAIN RAIN, GO AWAY

NOVEMBER 8, 2012

They are announcing rain for the entire week here in Montreal and maybe even a little snow. I thought if I told the rain to go away, it might just come another day! Here are a few of my favorite cloud shaped pillows, which would brighten up any kids room even on the greyest day. How about that print, it is so sweet it makes wish it was raining!

3. Grey Cloud and lightning bold
4. Raindrop Cloud
5. Navy cloud and Rain pillow

Rain, rain go away, come again another day!!!
