

THE KID WHO - FOR GREAT GIFT GIVING!

November 14, 2012

The Kid Who is a freshly launched online store with a great collection of the coolest contemporary children's products. Simply everything is want-able in this shop, for kids and for their parents alike. I love how fresh and fun the products are.

Besides the superb collection of gifts, the collection of wrapping paper, gift-tags and cards is also really great. So fun and so original. At The Kid Who, the whole act of shopping, wrapping and giving becomes a party by itself. I will definitely be shopping by this season!
