

A DAY FISHING

JANUARY 22, 2013

Today, I would like to share the pictures I have made for Panasonic, in a challenge about changing photography. I was one of the 10 bloggers chosen to do this. I had to choose a subject I don't usually deal with, so I chose "fishing". The photos are taken in my adored Asturias, where I live.

I made Nico a bamboo fishing rod, matching the wooden piers. And some felt fishes...

We had a lovely day and we enjoyed our beloved Asturias, the sea, the views, and even the weather!.

Hope you like it.
