

A PALLET BENCH FOR A BABY'S ROOM

MARCH 15, 2013

Today I would like to share the pallet bench I made for a nursery. I love pallet wood, like I told you last week with my son's coat rack. This time I painted the pallet in white and added four wheels. A mattress for comfortably sitting. I made the cushions with grey and white fabric with stars and clouds, and made the garland.
