COOS & KNITS

MARCH 20, 2013

As we've mentioned before here, we are big fans of Toto Knits. We're also enormous fans of the inspiring blog, Coos & Ahhs (and even more so after meeting Amanda at Playtime last week!). So it was super exciting to learn about the collaboration between the two: a capsule collection called Coos & Knits featuring muted pinks, electric blues, soft greys and high contrast, unisex pieces for kids aged 0 to 6. I'm loving the color block pullover jumper and the two-tone vests. What a great teaming-up of two creative forces!
