

PRETTY SPRING PARTY DRESSES BY MILLIE MANU

March 22, 2013

Spring flowers are finally in bloom in our garden - I saw daffodils this morning! This means that Spring is around the corner, with all its positiveness. A sweet smell in the air, gorgeous flowers sprucing up everywhere, fresh green leaves on the trees, the first picnics on freshly mown lawns, little boys in shorts and stripy jumpers, little girls in their new spring dresses... I can get pretty excited about it all. (I would be perfectly happy skipping the first three months of the year - cold, wet, boring and depressing as far as I'm concerned!)

I think the above dresses of the newly launched party collection by Millie Manu are just so, so perfect for any kind of celebration this coming season. I just couldn't resist the mint green Flo Dress for Ava - so gorgeous! It's entirely made out of silk - chiffon on the outside, and lined with silk as well. It has lovely little details and is made beautifully.

She'll be the queen of the ball with Easter this year - and we're all so excited because Courtney and her family will join us in Amsterdam to celebrate together!
