

BOOKREST LAMP

March 28, 2011

Yesterday I stumbled across a very cute shop here in Amsterdam, Tangram. It's one of those shops where you stop to peep in the window, decide to quickly step inside to have an inspirational look around, and end up chatting with the cute owner while buying something from her lovely selection of gift items (including a great selection of toys in the back of the store). This little Bookrest Lamp is what I came home with yesterday. So cute, I just couldn't resist! It's quite literally brilliant: a light fixture, bookrest and cute design item all in one... Available online through Amazon (UK or US).
