

MONTHLY NEWS FROM MILK MAGAZINE

MARCH 31, 2009

Pop chicken feet:

What is this Macintosh with giant chicken feet on it? It is a Dior Mac! With its poppy colours, your little one will want to wear it even when it does not rain. If she has trouble falling asleep she can always count chicken feet, instead of sheep. Dior '60s pop trench in piqué cotton, chicken feet print.

Arfa by Sirch:

Following the Maison et Object fair, we have been able to admire the new designs by the German Sirch. After designing toys, these Bavarians have turned to designing kids furniture. They have dreamed up a beautiful desk, made out of wood and felt. Available in three colours, it is accompanied by a chair or a stool, designed with the same clean lines in mind. You can already order it on File dans ta chambre, the site that is always on top of the most sparkling novelties.

Kup Kup Land:

This Spanish artist whose creative universe is called "Kup Kup Land" creates collages. In mixing bits of paper sourced from all over the place and fabrics such a felt she creates dream-like worlds. Sometimes they are animal dreamscapes and sometimes scapes of rain clouds. The easiest way to discover her world or purchase her work is by visiting her Etsy shop.

-Sophie Carré at Milk Magazine

Category: Baby, Children's spaces, Décor, Fashion & Accessories, For Kids, Furniture, Home

---

MILK MAGAZINE | 1 COMMENT

---