

SWEET SUMMER BOWLS

AUGUST 15, 2011

We're vacationing in France at the moment, and I came across these adorable bowls in a store yesterday. Of course I just couldn't resist - thinking they would just be perfect for breakfast in the garden, or for serving summery dishes like blackberry cobbler! They are available online through the online store of Comptoir de Famille, or in the UK at Divertimenti.
