

PERSONALISED PRESENTS

DECEMBER 13, 2011

Looking for a lovely, personal gift for one of your best friends, your mother (in law) or your spouse? I thought I would recommend these three great ideas that I love and know would make the most perfect and personal presents:

- What about a personalised iPhone cover, featuring a photo of the (grand) children? I love my iPhone cover with a photo of my kids! It's super-easy to order through Giant Sparrows. The only thing you need is a sweet photo!

- I think a personalised notebook would make a great gift for anyone. Mine is from Sloane Stationery, and it's gorgeous! (We now have an exclusive promotion running on the shopping portal where you get a free mini notebook with every notebook order from Sloane Stationery!)

- How sweet is this little bracelet with the names of my children? Every (grand)mother would love this! Available through Mum et Moi (and with a 15% exclusive discount for Babyccino Kids readers)!

Happy shopping!
