

DEAR MOM, DEAR DAD - SWEET ACTIVITY BOOKS

MAY 7, 2014

Dear Mom and Dear Dad are two adorable arts & craft workbooks for children that encourage them to think carefully about their mom or their dad... and answer a bunch of funny, sweet and delightfully clever questions. Kids can choose, draw or write the correct answer to queries like 'what is your mum amazingly good at?' (in my case the answer was: cooking, baking cakes, playing on my iPhone, drawing and sewing), 'what does she say when she is angry?' ('do I have to do everything myself?!?'), 'what does dad do when he's at work' (read messages / glue stuff / play games / fire people / work on the computer / etc).

Your child will create an honest and adorable mirror that will make you chuckle, feel loved, and - thankfully - feel like a very stereotype parent at times as well!

These books make wonderful gifts to both children as their parents. Sara has been working on her 'Dear Mom' book, and I love the results: how touching is this portrait she drew of me? (She sees me SO much more beautiful than I really am!!)

Dear Mom and Dear Dad have recently been brought out in English, but the original books are in Dutch and available through SNOR publishers. There's a German version in store as well! And age-wise... I think these books are best for 6-plus. Unless your child can read and write before that, of course!

PS It's Mother's Day this Sunday (best to gently remind your family ASAP if you haven't done so already!), and Father's Day is coming up as well. (Hint!)
